Dear Colleague,

The Educational Research (ER) is currently accepting manuscripts for publication. ER publishes high-quality solicited and unsolicited articles, in English, in all areas of Educational Researches. All articles published in ER will be peer-reviewed.

Our objective is to inform authors of the decision on their manuscript within five weeks of submission. Following acceptance, a paper will normally be published in the next available issue.

I am pleased to announce to you that the December issue of Education Research (ISSN: 2141-5161) is out. You can view it at:
